Indicative seat allotment, Choice filling and Choice locking

CCB is not processing indicative seat allotment after the locking of choices has begun. Candidates might have seen the earlier indicative allotments, which would have given some idea of the possibilities of getting allotment to a branch and institute; however candidate may note that many students might have registered later or modified the choices and this may trigger lots of changes in the final allotment.

Candidates are strongly advised to prepare a wish list of their choices irrespective of what they may get based on their All India Rank (AIR). There is no restriction on number of choices that a candidate can fill in.

Candidates are once again reminded to fill the choices in time and lock the choices before 5 pm on 23rd June 2011.
